

Mazurka Rancheira : Moda a 2 passos dos porquinhos da charneca

2-step trend from the piglets of the moorland

G*3

Comp. : Trad. Argentina

Discografia : Manuel Azenha Ferreira no site da "Música portuguesa a gostar dela própria"

Notas : Esta música tem muito que se lhe diga. Foi gravada como sendo uma moda a dois passos, o que em Portugal se pode traduzir como sendo uma mazurka. Por outro lado a melodia é duma música tradicional argentina, que por sua vez tem o nome de uma dança originária do Uruguai, o "Mate amargo", que por lá é uma bebida! Por sua vez na Argentina foi adaptada pelas bandas de Tango, o que leva a grandes confusões entre Tango e mazurkas e derivados. Segundo o senhor Manuel Azenha Ferreira (gravado pelo Tiago Pereira em 2012), aprendeu este tema com 7 anos em 1929, "atrás duns porquinhos na charneca" da localidade de Gançaria (Ribatejo).

Daí o título peculiar atribuído à música. A música será uma composição argentina de fim de século XIX e talvez tenha chegado a Portugal nos anos 20 quando o Tango era moda. A verdade é que deu a volta ao mundo e, se não houvesse internet e memória melódica, passaria por música tradicional portuguesa! A parte B é extra, pode ser uma adição do Manuel Azenha Ferreira, não tem relação com a música original. Os b.p.m. e a escala de Sol são os da gravação do Manuel Azenha.
