

Bourrée 2T : Last chance

Comp. : Michel Pichon (France)

Disc. : Blowzabella

Notes : According to Wikipedia, the bourrée is a French-origin dance common in the Auvergne and Biscay regions in 17th-century Spain. Originally titled "Il n'est plus temps", it was popularized by the English band Blowzabella who appear to have named it differently under an English title. What were they thinking? It has a slightly different swing from traditional French bourrées, which sometimes causes confusion in the dance floor. Play it wrongly and it might be your last chance to ever try a bourrée in a jam session!

♩ = 130

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, 2/4 time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of three systems of staves. The first system (measures 1-6) is marked with a box 'A' and includes chords Em, Am, Bm, and Em. The second system (measures 7-12) is marked with a box 'B' and includes chords C, D, Em, Am, D, and G. The third system (measures 13-18) includes chords C, Em, G, and Bm. The score ends with two measures of whole rests. Measure numbers 7 and 13 are indicated at the start of their respective systems.
